

Mitsunori Terada (Japan)

Just like my parents since I was a kid I loved and raised Doberman Boxer, Pointer, Boston Terrier, Cairn Terrier and many other breeds. By about 1969 my father began breeding English, Bulldog specialized, participate in the dog show, accompany him and start going to the dog show.

Also, the following year, my mother began breeding Shih Tzu, so join the dog show with Bulldog and Shih Tzu every time.

I have handled all breeds from other age 16 years since other dog breeds such as French Bulldog, Siberian Husky, Golden Retriever, Samoyed, English Setter, Springer, Bull Terrier, Papillon, Corgi, Chihuahua, Dachshund. At the same time, I also focused on the breeding of several dog species such as Bulldog, Shih Tzu, French Bulldog, and bred many champions.

In 2004, I acquired the JKC Handler Teacher Qualification, and in 2005, the JKC All Breed Group Examiner Qualification. In 2015, I retired from the handler position and changed to a judge, started judging in 2016, and in 2019 acquired the qualification of an all breed all-rounder judge.

Currently, I am a dog show judge and teach students at an animal technical school which is a lecturer for 25years. And, breeding exclusively only the wife 's favorite French bulldog, participate in the show and encourage the improvement of dog quality.

I am serving as FCI/JKC Allrounder Judge, JKC Kyushu Block Fukuoka Federation Chairman, And Handler Committee member.
